A message from our Spiritual Leader,
Cantor Shoshana Brown

Nothing like the Real Thing

Just last month, on May 11th, the U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services declared the end of the COVID-19 Public Health Emergency. As you may have noticed, the plexiglass shields in the supermarket are mostly gone now, and fewer and fewer people are masking when they go out in public. It has been a long time – over three years! Our lives have been changed in multiple ways by the experience of the coronavirus pandemic, both for bad, and, in some cases, for good. The question before us now is: how do we get back to a healthy way of functioning, not just as individuals, but in our communal life?

I recently visited a friend, a writer and freelance editor, who moved some years ago from California, where she had lived almost her whole life, to upstate New York. My friend, K., moved to the Adirondack-area for a job which looked promising, but when that job turned sour, she stayed in the area and developed her own business, mentoring writers and doing line-editing on their manuscripts. Because K. interacted with interesting, artistic people from all over North America, and perhaps because she still felt her closest ties to friends back in California, she did not work hard at finding an actual physical community in her area. She worked with and talked with friends and clients on Zoom or on the phone; she held retreats for writers several times a year – so she did spend some actual time with these people in person, but they did not live in the area, and they were not a permanent fixture of the physical community where K. lived.

Then one day K. fell (she had fainted), and in the process, broke her arm. She was at home alone. When she woke up, with the broken arm, she knew she had to get to an emergency room, and she knew that she could not drive herself there. But the only person in the area who she felt close enough with to ask this kind of favor of was out of town. Eventually, K. did find a ride to the hospital, but it was an awkward situation (she had to ask someone with whom she did not have the most amicable of relationships), and the person who gave her the ride did not wait to see how she was, but simply dropped her off at the ER.

This unfortunate situation made K. realize that she had almost no close friends in her geographical area, and no real community there. And thinking about this story, I began to wonder: how many other people across America feel this way? It is great that we can Face-time, Google-chat, Zoom, talk on What's App, Skype, etc. with people all over the world. We can be a part of virtual communities with people who share many of the same interests, perspectives, or with people who are working together with us to better the world in some way. But that still is not the same as actually living within a 10-mile radius of one another. To see one another on a screen is not the same as being able to sit down together in the same room and talk; it is not the same as taking a walk together; it is not the same as being able to give one another a hug; not the same as sharing a meal.

I write these words just as we are getting ready at Temple Beth El to come together for the largest “social” event we have shared since that Purim service and dinner in March of 2020 – the last event at Temple Beth El before the COVID-19 shutdown. Yes, we have restarted in-person services (but always with a Zoom component); we began enjoying Jewish movies together last summer; and we have even begun to share kiddush-luncheons after Shabbat services once a month. Mark and I hosted a Chanukah meal at our home this past December, but it was sparsely attended. I suppose most people were still not ready to socialize.

Here's the thing. We are part of a real community – and it is possible that we don't realize how lucky we are. We shouldn't take it for granted. Many people across this nation, who no longer belong to churches or synagogue-communities, who no longer join bridge clubs or bowling leagues, the PTA or the local Masonic lodge – have lost this sense of community. In a real community, you have someone you can call when you need help. They don't have to be your best friend, but they will help, because that's what community members do.

Real community requires real presence. I know that some of our members have given up driving, and some perhaps have health issues that keep them close to home. But if it is at all possible, I urge you to join us for our June 11th gala event in person – also, if you would like to come to some of our Shabbat services in person, but need a ride, please contact the TBE office, and we will try to match you up with someone who can give you that ride.

To be with other human beings in real life – not on a screen – this is a muscle that we do not want to let atrophy! Yes, we come together to pray and to praise God. But we also come to check in on one another, to laugh and cry together, simply to be in one another's presence. I am excited about our upcoming “homecoming” event, and I hope that this will begin a trend of us functioning as an in person community again. Technology has been a godsend for us in many ways, especially as we went through an almost 3-year pandemic. But there's nothing like the real thing. We are so lucky to be a part of a community like Temple Beth El's, which has lasted for over 95 years. Let's keep it going for many, many more!

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope that many of you are planning to come to our 95th anniversary celebration, both of Temple Beth El, and Bill Chebot, who has been a member here from the beginning. So many stories he has to tell! His Boy Scout troop met in one of the tower rooms many decades ago, and yet he can probably still tell you the names of many of the scouts. The deadline for RSVPing for the event is June 2nd, which will most likely be after you receive this bulletin, so I hope you saw the invitation in your email and responded in the affirmative! We are really trying to put the pandemic behind us and become a true congregation again, one that congregates in person.

I want to thank Carleen Makowski for sponsoring the kiddush luncheon at our May "Make a Minyan" Shabbat service. It was a wonderful and generous gesture, and a way for her to honor the memory of her beloved husband, Dr. Michael Makowski. Those who come in person not only hear the Torah chanted, but get to enjoy kiddush and fellowship afterwards. It is one more step toward normalcy!

Our annual Congregational meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 14th at 7 pm. It will be held in the vestry and live-streamed on Zoom, but it will not be interactive, so if you have something to say, please come in person! Please contact the Temple as soon as possible if you are interested in serving on the Board of Directors. We would love to have some new people with new ideas to help us chart our future.

I'm sure you have noticed that the recurring theme of this bulletin is physically coming back to the Temple...to pray together, to eat together, to learn together, to celebrate life together, and simply to enjoy each other's company.

And as for the 95th anniversary celebration, Mazel tov!

Steve Silverman
President

ANNUAL MEETING
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14TH
7 PM
IN PERSON AND ON ZOOM

Election and Installation of Officers

All congregants are cordially invited to attend
A Zoom link will be sent out the prior week.

Sisterhood President's Message

It's the beginning of June, and summer is definitely in the air. As I am writing this, I am doing my best to bring hope back to the Temple. In a week or so, we will be celebrating our 95th Anniversary. At that time we will be honoring our own Bill Chebot. Bill is 95 years young and has been an integral part of our Temple family all his life. This is why we have chosen to dedicate this milestone to him. Mazel Tov to Temple Beth El and Bill Chebot!

I just hope I'm able to greet many of you here at the Temple, during our celebration. Just remember, if you don't have a reservation, you'll have to watch the festivities on live stream. You must be on the guest list to participate in person.

I want to remind all of you folks to watch for e-mails from the Temple. Sisterhood will be planning a summer event. The details will come to you through this format. Marie Twomey does an excellent job of getting the information out to us. We would be lost without her.

So until next time, have a safe and healthy summer. Get out there and enjoy some fresh air.

Libby Cohen
Sisterhood President

TBE News & Notes

By now, I'm sure you all have received invitations to and/or notifications about our gala brunch on Sunday June 11th – celebrating the 95th anniversary of Temple Beth El, the 95th birthday (a half a year late!) of Bill Chebot, and a general “welcome back” to Temple Beth El event. It will be so wonderful to see each other in person again! Please make your reservations, if you have not done so already, and join us for minyan at 9, and brunch-and-schmooze at 9:45. Please plan on staying until at least 11:30 so that you can hear our special music guests, an a capella Jewish singing group from Boston, named “Honorable Menschen,” whose performance will begin at approximately 11:00.

We have been greatly enjoying our monthly “Make-a-Minyan” Shabbats, which allows us to chant from the Torah, and also to enjoy a kiddush-lunch together. The date for our June “Make-a-Minyan” is Saturday, June 17th. You can attend on Zoom, but if you can come in person and join us for lunch, how much better! (Please be on the lookout in your email for the announcement of the dates for July and August.)

As you can see in this bulletin (from the photos), we had a sizable crowd for the SouthCoast Almanac – sponsored book walk, with Rabbi Mark reading selected poems from his book, Headstone. Most of those who showed up were not from the temple, or even from Fall River, but we were joined by members Ron and Claire Caplain, Sylvia Eisner, Renee Lipson, Michael Holtzman and Nancy Seibert. At the end of the walk, we had the chance to show off our beautiful sanctuary. A wonderful event!

Once again, I will be offering TBE Nature Walks during the summer months. Since the pandemic has been declared “over,” we can carpool to the 3 walks I have planned for this summer. Please take note of the dates and meeting times, and let the temple office know if you plan to join us on the walks. Please see page 6 for details.

If you have questions about the weather, and whether the walk will still be taking place on a given day, you may contact Cantor Shoshana at the following number: 631-946-4036.

Summer schedule for adult ed and Hebrew classes: There will be no classes from June 18 to July 6. Our normal schedule for all classes will resume on July 10.

Shabbat services on June 23, 24, 30, and July 1 will take place on Zoom only.

Our TBE service for Tisha b'Av will take place both live and on Zoom on Wednesday, July 26 at 8:30 pm at our home at 537 Walnut St. (Please note that the fast for this day of mourning begins at 8:10 pm on Wednesday, 7/26, and ends on Thursday, 7/27 at 8:58 PM.) Check your email during the week of July 24th for the link if you plan on attending via Zoom.

Looking ahead... our Selichot service will be on Saturday night, September 9th, with Rosh Ha-Shanah following a week later (beginning the evening of September 15th).

Please see page 7 for information about the summer movies in July and August. Due to the 95th Celebration and our family vacation, we won't be showing a movie in June.

"THE ATTACK"
Sunday, July 16th at 2 pm

"A WALK ON THE MOON"
Sunday, Aug. 13th at 2 pm

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT THE JEWISH MOVIES!

Because of the June 11th gala, and then the Elber/Brown family vacationing in June, there will be no June movie – sorry!

July 16th, 2 PM: "The Attack" An Israeli Arab physician offers assistance at the scene of a gruesome suicide bombing in Tel Aviv and then learns that the bomber was his own wife. Stunned and furious, he sets out to confront the people who encouraged her deadly decision. Winner of five international film awards. (2012, 1 hr., 35 min.)

Aug. 13th, 2 PM: "A Walk on the Moon" A 1999 movie produced by Dustin Hoffman, directed by Tony Goldwyn. The story-line involves a Jewish family, focusing on the mother, who experience the summer of the 1969 Apollo Moon landing, as well as Woodstock, from the vantage point of a Jewish summer bungalow in the Catskills. Left without her husband for most of the summer, Pearl Kantowitz is drawn into the web of a mysterious traveling salesman passing through the Catskills, and must decide whether to stay with her husband and family, or leave the familiar life she has always lived behind for a "walk on the moon." (1 hour, 45 min.)

South Coast Almanac Walking Book Tour

These images are from the "Book Walk" through the Fall River Highlands on May 10th. The walk featured Rabbi Mark reading passages from his poetry book, "Headstone." The walk was sponsored by SouthCoast Almanac. It was a great group of people and a beautiful day, starting on the granite steps of the Temple, and ending with a tour of our magnificent sanctuary. We appreciate the anonymous photographers for the great photos!
