THE RABBI SAMUEL & TILLIE RUDERMAN SHABBATON-WEEKEND

KOLOT NASHIM (THE VOICES OF WOMEN)

Friday, October 19th thru Sunday, October 21st

Featuring Special Shabbat Guest Cantor Abbe Lyons, and Sunday Brunch Speaker, executive film producer Patti Kenner

Cantor Abbe Lyons

JEWISH WOMEN'S VOICES IN SONG

Kabbalat Shabbat, October 19th, beginning at 5:30 pm with Oneg and performance by Cantor Abbe to follow.

Shabbat Morning Service October 20th 10 am to 12 Noon, with Kiddush to follow.

Shabbat afternoon/evening Se'udah Shlisheet gathering at the Brown/Elber home, 537 Walnut Street, beginning at 4:30 PM.

We will nosh, schmooze, and then Cantor Abbe will perform a home concert, and we will all enjoy Havdalah together.

JEWISH WOMEN'S VOICES IN JOURNALISM AND FILM

Sunday, October 21st: Please join us for Shacharit at 9 am in the chapel, followed by brunch and the presentation of "Ahead of Time: the Extraordinary Journey of Ruth Gruber." This 2010 documentary will be presented by the film's executive co-producer, Ms. Patti Kenner. Ruth Gruber (who died in 2016 at the age of 105) was a fearless, fascinating journalist who traveled the world over to report on world events when there were hardly any women journalists, saw the rise of Hitler as a young PhD student living in Germany, the birth of the State of Israel, and much more. Ms. Kenner will speak with us about the making of this documentary which we will then view together after brunch. Don't miss it!

Ms. Patti Kenner

*Please RSVP for any or all of the events by Friday, October 12th.
All programs are presented courtesy of the Rabbi Samuel and Tillie Ruderman Fund.*

Cantor Shoshana Brown

The Homecoming at Temple Beth El

It is one day after Yom Kippur as I write these words, and I suppose I should feel exhausted, but actually I feel more full of energy than I did during the weeks leading up to the High Holidays. This might be explained by the sense of relief that the heavy lifting of these holidays is behind me, that the fast is over – and I can enjoy my coffee again, which I always cut down on during the week preceding the fast. But it is also because of the good feeling that is generated when so much of the Temple Beth El community comes together, many from far-flung places – it is a kind of “homecoming” season. It was especially gratifying to see a handful of our post b’nai mitzvah coming up to the Torah for aliyot, and a wonder to see how quickly they have grown up! I am happy to report that there were quite a few new people joining us for the first time, two of them women expecting their first children very soon – could there be a fresh infusion of children at Temple Beth El in our near future?

One of the new couples who were with us for the holidays shared with me how they met: they were both working and living at Camp Isabella Freedman (a Jewish retreat center) in the Connecticut Berkshires; and so I immediately knew that they must be knowledgeable, committed Jews. I was so happy that this young couple had chosen us! The husband remarked that although he had grown up in this part of New England, attending a Reform temple with his family, he now prefers a service with a greater balance of Hebrew in it, and that ours fit the bill for him. I’m sure that there might be some attendees who would say the opposite – you know the old story: two Jews, three opinions!

Certainly, one aspect of serving as a clergy person is recognizing that you can never please all the people all of the time – indeed, Rabbi Mark and I get great joy when it is evident that we have pleased some of the people at certain times – especially during these important holidays. But it is not just about us – we look out at the congregation during the holiday services, or across the vestry during the break-fast, and we see how much all of you are enjoying being together (and not only TBE members but members of Adas Israel as well), some of you reconnecting after not seeing each other since last Yom Kippur, and some of your friends who keep up regular contact throughout the year. In certain ways Rabbi Mark and I are outsiders to the Fall River Jewish community – we cannot tell tales of “the good ol’ days” of many decades ago at the temple. But in other ways we have been here long enough to feel the sense of mishpocha (family) in Jewish Fall River: we have gotten over our first years’ jitters, and we can truly say that we now feel that all of you are family. In a family you don’t all have to like the same things, or share the same opinions on everything (whether it be rituals, melodies, or politics): you just accept and embrace each other as you are, coming to one another’s side during times of sadness or crisis, and rejoicing with one another during times of joy. We have been through sad times as well as joyful times with so many of you now. Seeing so many members of the TBE and Adas Israel mishpocha together over these holidays is an energizing force for me. Living in the era of much online interconnectedness but little face to face community, I feel that we are part of a very fortunate group who have retained this real human connectedness. I can only hope that we might be a vital rootstock out of which new shoots can grow and onto which new limbs can be grafted.

Our “homecoming” season extends through October, with our Simchat Torah celebration (and deli dinner) on October 1st, and the Ruderman Shabbaton-Weekend scheduled for October 19th to the 21st – and really on into December, with last year’s marvelous Klezmer band, Ezekiel’s Wheels, returning to play at our Chanukah party on December 9th. I know that some of you, alas, will leave us for warmer climes before December, but know that while you are away we will miss you and think of you, and look forward to your return in the spring. So I just want to say thank you to all of you who were here for the holidays, whether you played a vital role in the service or sponsored the break-fast, collected money for the flowers on the bimah, acted as an usher, chanted Torah, or just showed up – there can be no community without people showing up: you are all vital to the continuation of Jewish life in greater Fall River. I look forward to seeing you again soon at our great line up of fall/winter events.

As they used to say at the end of every episode of The Beverly Hillbillies, “Y’all come back now, you hear?”

Cantor Shoshana

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Wow -- what a month September was!

With the High Holidays starting so early this year, it seemed like we packed in several months' worth of services and events into just a few weeks. It was a whirlwind of activity, but I think it was one of the smoothest holiday seasons I can remember in quite some time. Thanks to all who had a part in the planning and execution, especially our spiritual leaders, Rabbi Mark and Cantor Shoshana, who did such a nice job with all of the services. Thanks, too, to Adas Israel for sponsoring the Break-Fast, to George for doing everything from watering the mums to prepping the food, and everything in between. Thanks to Sisterhood, and Elaine Weiss-Reback for taking the reins of the Flower Fund this year (and hopefully for many more), to the Religion Committee for lining up the aliyot and Torah holders, to our old friend Tom Gregory for helping to set up the sukkah, and our new friends Lee and Rona Trachtenberg for decorating it. And special thanks to Susan Bender for once again ushering with me. I don't know what I would have done without her!

As always it was wonderful to see so many people attend our many services and events. While we lost too many friends over the course of the year, it was a treat to see some new faces in the crowd, as well as to see some of our recent b'nai mitzvah coming to the bimah for aliyot. Seeing the young faces gives me hope that we may be able to rebuild our congregation and remain in our beautiful building for many years to come.

Lastly, my sincere condolences to the families and friends of Lester Schwartz and Attorney Dick Levin. Both were staunch members of our congregation for many decades, and both will be missed - and remembered -- by many. Also condolences to the Freedman family on the loss of Sheila over the summer. Both Sheila and Lenny served on the board (Lenny as president) and were very involved in Temple life for many years. May their memory be for a blessing.

Sisterhood President's Message

Well here we are in the throes of "Fall". These cool mornings and evenings are a harbinger of what's to come. Me, myself, I could've used a few more weeks of summer.

The month of October is going to be quite busy here at Temple Beth El. On Monday, October 1st, we are going to celebrate Simchat Torah. Our annual deli supper will follow services. Please plan on joining us for the fun.

On Thursday morning, October 4th, we are going to get together to wish one of Temple's favorite people, Marilyn Sokoll, good luck on the next leg of her journey, as she will be moving to the Boston area. Sisterhood is sponsoring a "Minyan for Marilyn." This will be followed by breakfast and some schmoozing. Please come by and give Marilyn the send off she deserves.

Plans are currently underway for the Ruderman Weekend. It begins Friday evening, October 19th, and runs through Sunday morning, October 21st. I hope to see everyone taking part in the many special events. Please RSVP for any or all events by Friday, October 12th!

I must take this time to thank my new Flower Chair, Elaine Weiss Reback, for the terrific job she did with the holiday flowers. They were absolutely beautiful. I also want to thank Marie Twomey for her help in getting out the letter to our members. Also, thank you to all the donors for their generosity.

So until next month, stay safe.

TBE News & Notes

You might think that after the High Holidays, Sukkot and Simchat Torah, things would quiet down, but October is still a busy month this year!

Please join us on October 4th for a very special Thursday morning minyan and breakfast to honor Marilyn Sokoll, longtime member of TBE, who will be leaving us soon to live near her son and daughter-in-law in Newton – oy, Marilyn, we will miss you so much!

Coffee, Pastries and the Israel Report: On Monday morning, October 15th, at 10:30, Cantor Shoshana and congregant Suzanne Finkel will speak briefly about their recent trips to Israel, share photos, and there will be coffee and pastries for all. Please come, enjoy a nosh and the cantor's and Suzanne's slides, after which we will continue with our adult ed class for the day.

October 19th-21st: The Ruderman Shabbaton Weekend (see page 1). Don't forget to RSVP to the TBE Office!

The TBE Nature Walk for October will be on Thursday Oct. 25th. We will try again to hike at Allens Pond in Dartmouth (last time we were rained out) – a spectacular place to behold in the fall! Please meet in the vestry at 9:15 after the Thursday morning minyan.

Please note that due to the business of the fall, and the documentary that will be shown at the Ruderman Brunch, there will be no TBE movie this month. See you at the movies in November!.

More on our Visiting Cantor...

Cantor Abbe Lyons received a Bachelor of Music in Voice Performance from Ithaca College in 1987, and received her ordination as a hazzan (cantor) in 2010 from ALEPH (the Alliance for Jewish Renewal). She has also studied and practiced somatic education and healing arts and worked in the nonprofit sector. Currently, Cantor Lyons is the spiritual leader of Gilat Rina Havurah and lead singer of the band Resonate. She works for Hillel at both Ithaca College and Binghamton University and is on the faculty of the ALEPH Ordination Program. Her latest CD, recorded with Resonate, Listen! features dynamic musical settings of Jewish texts in translation.

OFF THE SHELF

Welcome Autumn! Hopefully the hot and humid days are finally behind us. Although it was easy to get quite a bit of reading done both at the beach and anywhere there was air conditioning.

A good number of books have come into the library this summer. Mostly fiction, but there are a couple of non-fiction books also. All the newest books are either on the rack as you first enter the library or on the display on top of the card catalog on the right hand side of the room.

I try to be in the library on Mondays after the Rabbi and Cantor's class, especially the first Monday of the month, but when I am not there it is still possible to check out books. Simply take the card out of the back of the book, sign your name, and leave it on the desk so I can find it. Simple!!

Here's to enjoyable reading,
